August 12th 1848.
We the undersigned Senators and Representatives from the State of Texas do hereby certify that we have carefully examined J. De Cordovas map of the State of Texas compiled by R. Creuzbaur from the records of the General Land Office of Texas, and have no hesitation in saying that no map could surpass this in accuracy and fidelity. It has delineated upon it every county in the State, its towns, rivers, and streams, and we cordially recommend it to every person who desires correct geographical information of our state. To persons desirous of visiting Texas it will be invaluable.

By the Governor.
W. D. Miller
Secretary of State.
THE STATE OF TEXAS
I hereby certify that this map has been compiled from the records of the General Land Office, by Robert Creuzbaur, and that it is the most correct representation of the State which I have seen or which has come within my knowledge. The meanders of the rivers are all correctly represented, being made from actual surveys.
Austin, July 4th 1848.
The undersigned, Commissioner of the General Land Office of the State of Texas, has no hesitancy in declaring it as his firm conviction that this map is a very correct representation of the State, representing all returns up to date, having been compiled with great care from the records of the Land Office by the draughtsman Robert Creuzbaur.
